

Face of Youth

A portrait series of young men expressing themselves, who they are what they are about through fashion focusing on earrings. This form of adornment is usually common on girls and women but now there is a rise of young men wearing different styles of earrings that are bold.

The men were shot on the streets of Johannesburg randomly, using an Iphone as well as a Canon 650D.