

Sea and Jewelry

Is there a time when you were taken that made the heart break?

How many times did you shed tears thinking of the person?

Crying is a feeling of passing, and despair....

I know the best way is running away, but I can't.

Because you have taken my one and only my heart.

The people say " You are lucky, because you keep thinking such sweet things," but still painful things happen.

"Immorality" "Lost Love" "Betrayal" " Jealousy" "Innocent malice"

I just love one person.

It is not an event to shake society, it is not a social problem....

This series represent the tears my heart left behind.
