Hello ☺ my name is Aseel Abudayeh, I am happy to participate in the IWPA contest, I would like to thank you for all the efforts you do to support women, thank you ♀♥

My work goes under the free theme, it is about the beauty of nature, the light that enriches our inner love and peace day after day, and how this light never goes off no matter how cloudy a sky might get. It is about the outstanding charm of the Ocean and the beautiful art of surfing. The way how each detail holds within an infinite limit of beauty. The prettiness of nature is always there, shedding light regardless the surroundings... it is likewise for women, for our unique capacity to glow and sparkle even if it gets so dark...

☘Photo 1: Hearty lollipop ♥

Love, like the sunshine, enlightens us, gives us inner warmth and guides our paths in life. If it comes in a lovely form of a yummy lollipop, it makes the day sweeter ☺

☘Photo 2: Vitamin Sea ✨

There is no way to feel more alive without vitamin sea. Some of its side effects are surfing the waves in the Atlantic Ocean, enjoying the sun, the golden sand and the blue view.

One more rider, with his surfing board, is joining the party to line up and wait for the perfect wave to ride. The courage and the beautiful attitude surfers have towards nature is worth admiring.

Surfing is passion and skills that, by time and practice, turn into art. It is art that combines joy and fear to ride waves and enjoy the absolute sensation of freedom. Nature itself is a masterpiece of art. The ocean, the sky and the surfer riding the waves look like a painting of a talented artist.

No matter how big or small a wave can be, how loud or low its melody can sound, a surfer is always ready to catch up the rhythm. Nature has its own melodies, don't stop the music 🎵

The peaceful beauty of a place that, decades ago, has witnessed a war. After darkness, light always shines and finds its way to sparkle all around ☀

‡Photo 7: The beauty of sharing ♥♥

Surfing is a joyful sport that is always shared with others. In a similar way, nature shares with us such mesmerizing moments when the sky embraces the earth like this one.

A lighthouse guides towards safety. The inner light that each person has leads to safety as well. With years, with wisdom, with beauty we become the lighthouse for ourselves and for all those in need of help.

The sensation of freedom and happiness by the seaside is beyond awesomeness. And no matter how cloudy it can be, light always has its marvelous way to spread the colors of happiness all over the sky.

Enjoy each moment, search for the beauty in everything. May be one day the inner beauty and light shine brightly inside every heart, and reflect its perfectness in a better place for all of us.

Thank you for your time ☺ Hope you have enjoyed my participation ♥

Best regards
