

STATEMENT; Corona Queens

I am documenting the cultural features of Corona, Queens, one of few neighborhoods that retains its diversity and authenticity. Some of the qualities that I seek, find and capture here are kitsch, humor, religious ornamentation, irony, adaptation, struggle and despair. Over the eight years that I have been working on this project, I often revisit subjects to find them transformed — providing a constant replenishment and evolution of subject matter and continuous discoveries.

—Cara Galowitz