

Free theme

This series tells the story of a family of Kazhaks nomads during their spring nomadic migration.

Each year, Shokhan, his extended family and livestock make the grueling trip taking them from the Mongolian lowlands to highlands, traveling across more than 100km in immense, barren landscapes.

This portfolio tells the story of this migration, and combines landscapes with natural light portraits of Shokhan and his two daughters.