

Hello, my photos are mostly portraits of children either in studio or on location. As a creative tool I use light of all kinds. Children are very pure and open so I like to catch that purity with my camera.