

Biography / cv Helena Georgiou

Helena Georgiou was born and raised in Nicosia, Cyprus.

She studied Interior Design at the University of Nicosia and photography + Journalism at Michigan State University.

She received a diploma in History of Architecture from HarvardX Extension School and the history of photography from the University of London.

She takes online courses at MoMA (Museum of Modern Art, New York). At the moment, she is studying Greek Culture studies.

Since 2011, she has showcased several solos + group exhibitions in distinguished galleries around the world, such as the Papenhuder57 Gallery Germany, Parliamentarium (Brussels), European Parliament (Strasbourg), Öffentliche Versicherung Braunschweig, Germany.

She has been nominated with important distinctions such as European Parliament photographic awards. (3 times), and from Sony Award Sony World Photography Awards.

Her portfolio includes: street photography, portraits of ordinary peoples, digital art (manipulation), architecture, minimal, still life, etc