

Lucia De Giovanni
www.luciadegiovanni.com

Lucia De Giovanni is an award-winning photographer and internationally known photojournalist currently residing in Denver, CO. She is the Founder of MYPP, Mentor a Young Photographer Program, the "On Being Woman" project, "My Life" Project and "The LOVE Project". For most of her career, De Giovanni has been a member of CPA, the Colorado Press Association and NPPA, the National Press Photographers Association.

For her photojournalistic work, De Giovanni was awarded the prestigious 2011 Simon Rockower Award, First Place, Excellence in Photography.

For many years, De Giovanni was the official photographer of the band LIVE, and all Think Loud companies, including Think Loud Studios, a state of the art recording studio located in York, PA.

De Giovanni's focus on Corporate Social Responsibility has expanded her commercial work to engage with global companies to document business activities that contribute to society, via their involvement with local communities.

Books

Author and Photographer- "The LOVE Project", United States, 2011

Photographer - "Amongst Sisters", Australia, 2011