

Marta Kosiorek CV

I am a freelance photographer, born in Warsaw, Poland, where i currently live after spending many years in the US, Canada, and Mexico. I am a graduate of the acting program at the Polish National Film, Television and Theatre School in Lodz, Poland, but I feel much better on the other side of the lens.

I completed the prestigious one-year Sputnik Photos Mentoring Program in 2014 in Warsaw, Poland.

My long term project about polish prisons “Three square meters” have been selected for inclusion in the 2017 Aperture Summer Open, On Freedom in Aperture Gallery and also received KTR 2017 (prestigious Polish Advertising Contest) nomination for Best Personal Photography Project .

In 2019 my work was a part of Der Greif "Blame the Algorithm" 12 issue guest edited by Oliver Chanarin and Adam Broomberg.

My work was also a part of a group exhibition in the Stadtmuseum München, Germany conceived around Der Grief issue 12 In Munich, Germany.

My main area of work is documentary photography shifting toward „magical realism”.
